Overview

Introduction

This topic provides information on the New Employee Add (H0BNE) set-up process for new employees. The complete CIPPS new hire process involves data input on various screens which, with the exception of H0BNE, are also used to maintain the employee and associated job information following initial new hire processing. See CAPP Topic No. 50310, Rehires and Employee Data Changes. H0BNE is used only once for each employee to facilitate the establishment of each new employee record. Once used for a given employee, it cannot be retrieved for revision.

At calendar year-end, DOA purges any CIPPS terminated employee records that have no payroll accumulations during the year. If an employee is rehired before the record is purged, the existing record must be reactivated, and the appropriate updates must be made to the existing employee information.

Employee records can be transferred in CIPPS from one agency to another when the agencies involved have the same Federal Employment Identification Number (FEIN). Transfers must be approved and completed by DOA.

CIPPS Navigation

Basic navigational skills and knowledge are needed to complete the new hire or maintenance process within CIPPS. CAPP Topic No. 50110, CIPPS Navigation, provides this basic information.

Menu/Link Function

The CIPPS Menu/Link function is a tool that facilitates the new employee add process. Refer to CAPP Topic No. 50115, Menu/Link Functions, for more information.

HELP Function

CIPPS has a built-in HELP function. HELP is available for most fields in CIPPS and gives user instructions on the valid values available for data entry. To use the HELP function, move the cursor to the field in question and press the F1 key. CIPPS displays the requested information. Use the F3 key to return to the original screen

Online, Real Time Data Entry

Online edits are performed on CIPPS masterfile screens to detect errors. If an error is detected, the field in question is highlighted, and an error message is displayed in the bottom left part of the screen. See CAPP Topic No. 70520, Error Messages, for more information. When information is correctly entered, the record is immediately updated.

Definitions

The following common terms and phrases are used throughout this topic:

Term	Definitions
Company	The agency number proceeded by two zeros.
Number
Employee	11 digit numeric code identifying the employee. Usually the
Number	employee's Social Security Number followed by two zeros.
	If a second employee record is necessary, use the employee's social security number again, but in the 10 th position, a number other than zero would be used to identify the new record.
	The last "zero" in the sequence is known as the Transpositional Check Digit (TCD) field, which is entered on batch transactions.
Social Security	The employee's Social Security Number as it appears on the Number	employee's Social Security card.

Employee Data Screens

Employee Data Screens

Following the establishment of new employee records using H0BNE, many other screens must be accessed for data entry to complete the new hire/rehire process, or to simply update and maintain employee information. Data entry procedures for these screens are contained in the referenced CAPP topic:

New Employee Add (H0BNE)

H0BNE

H0BNE must be completed first when hiring a new employee to provide the data elements required to build an employee record in CIPPS. Certain data fields entered on H0BNE automatically generate H0BID, H0BAD, and H0ATX screens for the employee. However, not all required data entry fields on H0BID, H0BAD, and H0ATX, are automatically completed through H0BNE, and additional data entry will be required. Once used to establish the employee record, H0BNE cannot be used for that employee number again.

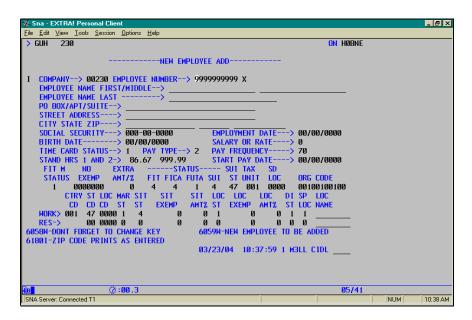

When entering data on H0BNE, some fields are automatically filled with the information from the agency's lowest employee number record. Remember that the automatically filled information may or may not apply to the current new employee, and may need to be changed. To expedite data entry, you may want to place the employee number of an existing employee record in the Command Line. Then the automatically-filled, data element fields are filled with the values from the existing employee record entered in the Command Line.

H0BNE, continued

H0BNE is the only screen in which the Subcommand field is automatically filled with a value of "I". Once the screen is completed with the proper data, and the Enter key is pressed, another blank H0BNE screen displays. Processors can enter another new employee's information, or navigate to the next desired screen. In order to navigate to another screen, the "I" in the subcommand must be removed, and the Command Line must be completed.

Access H0BNE as instructed in, CAPP Topic No. 50110, CIPPS Navigation:

Entry

Additional Data Once H0BNE data entry is complete, additional information must be entered on other screens to ensure accurate payroll processing. The list presented earlier in this topic outlines the screens and the related CAPP Topics to complete the data entry of new employee information.

Internal Control

Internal Control

Documentation supporting the hiring of employees must be properly completed and authorized before processing. Prior to certification, review all information pertaining to the new hires, ensuring the correctness of the data entry. Develop in-house policies and procedures concerning the data entry and review processes. All applicable forms/applications used to establish an employee record or to make a change to the current information must be maintained by the agency for audit purposes.

Records Retention

Time Period

The Input Transaction Listing, Report 1001, and the Transaction Batch Balance Summary, Report 1005, must be retained for 60 days. All other reports should be retained for five (5) years or until audited, whichever is later. Agency policy and procedures determine the retention of the related agency source documents/records. See CAPP Topic No. 21005, Records Retention and Disposition.
